A Cooling Earth (for 18 West 11th Street)

Never think of money in terms of numbers Only in terms of other things a cooling Earth
a drying apple

In the nineteenth century Skin became wrinkled
a pearl cast
in a bowl of vinegar

Will weather

Into debt over her

Greek gifts vaily inherited quake as she tears
A thirty-foot hole down the aisle greyish clod
of soggy papers

“I.A.S.D.S.C.S.I.D.A.S.D.C.SSepulchered”

Too much sediment in Aquarius

In the Federal Style falls
Letters and tenants relieved themselves of property.
